

TITAN MANAGED DETECTION AND RESPONSE

For many organizations, security is an either/or decision as need far outweighs available resources. The need for new technology is apparent, but not so the budget or experienced personnel. GoSecure offers advanced, cloud-delivered detection and response solutions backed by the hyper-experienced team from our Active Response Center.

GoSecure Titan Managed Detection and Response allows you to choose the exact level of protection for your organization. By offering flexible combinations of features, GoSecure Titan MDR helps you match budget with security. And, as your security needs change, you can easily move to a higher level of MDR.
